Dear prospective applicant,

Thank you for your interest in the position of Headteacher at Dawlish College. The college is part of the Ivy Education Trust which spans the Teignbridge area, between Newton Abbot and Dawlish, and is made up of three secondary schools and 5 primary schools.

We are looking to recruit a visionary and enthusiastic leader who will help drive the development and delivery of a motivating and engaging curriculum and continually develop the quality of teaching and learning. The successful candidate will also benefit from working with our Executive Director of Education, Paul Cornish, who has been in education for over 20 years and worked in 7 different secondary schools with a proven record of school improvement as senior leader, Headteacher, Executive Headteacher and CEO.

The Headteacher at Dawlish College will work in partnership with the college's leadership team and have many opportunities to collaborate with others across the wider partnership of the Trust.

Dawlish College is a wonderfully welcoming and happy college where individuality is celebrated and expectations are high. We take pride in ourselves, our learning, and our environment. We strive to maximise outcomes for all students.

As with everything in life, you get back what you put in. Life at Dawlish College is no different. With a broad and balanced curriculum, staff who are passionate about learning and a culture of supportive challenge, Dawlish College is a place where ambition is unlocked.

Visits to the college are strongly encouraged. Should you wish to arrange a visit or for more information regarding the role, please contact Paul Cornish, Executive Director of Education. For those further away a phone or video call is also encouraged to discuss the post, college and the application process. Please email paul.cornish@ivyeducationtrust.co.uk to arrange a mutually convenient time.

I look forward to receiving your application.

Katy Quinn

Chief Executive Officer, Ivy Education Trust

Dear prospective applicant,

Ivy Education Trust is newly-formed as a result of a merger between Osprey Learning Trust and Estuaries Multi Academy Trust. Dawlish College was part of Estuaries Multi Academy , and has improved steadily under the leadership of the last Headteacher.

The Ivy Education Trust is well-led and well-run and is predicated on local management of schools wherever possible.

However collaboration among schools is strongly encouraged and the new Headteacher of Dawlish College will be expected to play a full part in the Trust.

The board of Ivy Education Trust is populated by able people from many walks of life and has high expectations of all the professional staff and the pupils.

We hope you apply for the headship and we would be most interested in how you would set about the challenge of leading Dawlish College.

Tony Smith

Chair of the Trust Board, Ivy Education Trust

Dear prospective applicant,

Thank you for considering the role of Headteacher at Dawlish College

We aim to provide all students and staff with the opportunities to develop and thrive as fulfilled members of society, care and support all to be safe and happy in enriching and exciting environments. We aim to ensure that all students have every chance to achieve the best possible qualifications, skills and knowledge they can in order to succeed in their futures.

It is important that children come to school feeling safe, welcomed and cared for and whatever their background or educational needs they leave our school inspired and empowered to achieve the best of their abilities and ambitions. This is exemplified by school values and we pride ourselves on the pastoral support offered by staff who are experienced, committed and engaged. The continuing professional development of staff is strongly supported to ensure that quality of teaching is a core priority. The school received a “Good” evaluation following an Ofsted inspection in March 2019. Since then, the school has seen a year on year improvement in student outcomes, so we are looking for someone with the right qualities, experience and passion to provide the leadership needed to develop our school even further for the benefit of the children, families and community we serve.

If you believe you can offer the right skills we would be delighted to receive your application.

David Violett

Chair of Local Governing Body, Dawlish College

Dawlish College

“Senior Leaders have been successful in establishing a positive culture that supports pupils’ all-round personal development and their physical and emotional wellbeing”

Dawlish College is a vibrant and exciting place to be. As a relatively small school we have the luxury of knowing every young person as an individual whilst also being able to offer a wider variety of opportunities. Working collaboratively, having fun and enjoying what we do is at the heart of what it means to work with us and we believe that this is why students thrive, our outcomes are strong and we are growing year on year.

Dawlish College is part of Ivy Education Trust. At Ivy Education Trust, we have exceptional expectations of our students and staff and we welcome applicants who share our commitment to place student learning at the center of everything we do. Our induction programme is excellent, and all staff are involved in an innovative CPD programme. Ivy Education Trust is an inspiring place to work, with staff who are dedicated to increasing opportunities, improving outcomes and improving the life chances of all pupils and families that we serve and to nurture, develop and grow the talent of staff.
